

MANAGING WOODLANDS WITH WILDLIFE IN MIND

Thursday 8th November 2018

AGENDA

- 9.30am Arrive at Fineshade
Welcome and coffee
- 09.45am Introduction to the day & the Back from the Brink, Roots of Rockingham project
- 10.00am Managing woodlands for birds – RSPB
- 10.25am Managing woodlands for bats – Sonia Reveley, Bat Conservation Trust
- 10.50am Managing woodlands for reptiles – John Baker, Amphibian & Reptile Conservation
- 11.15am Tea/Coffee break
- 11.30am Managing woodlands for plants – Tim Pankhurst, Plantlife
- 11.55am Managing woodlands for butterflies & moths – Susannah O’Riordan, Butterfly Conservation
- 12.20pm Overview of legislation & grants/funding possibilities – FC/NE?
- 12.50pm Lunch (This will be provided)
- 13.30pm Walk around Fineshade – opportunity to look at the management at this site and discuss species needs & interaction with woodland habitats.
- 4pm Depart

WHAT TO BRING

- Suitable clothing for the weather
- Sturdy footwear suitable for walking on uneven terrain
- Notepad and pen
- Camera (optional)
- Binoculars (optional)

